Refurbished Upstairs Hall

Upstairs Hall:

The C.A.F.E Project recently received a grant of £20,000.00 towards upgrading the function hall in the project. After extensive work the hall is now near completion.

New Build:

Plans to move the C.A.F.E project to a site on Lindsay street were revealed to the general public. The plans show an all new purpose built youth centre with a football pitch outside. The plans are now in the hands of planning officials who will decide whether or not they will get the go-ahead.

Jack McConnell:

Former First Minister Jack McConnell visited the C.A.F.E. Project during his campaign to be re-elected as first minister. He spent time chatting to the youngsters and volunteers and even challenged one of the youngsters to a game of pool. He also presented Shaun Sievwright with his youth achievement award. Mr McConnell commented on what a tremendous facility the C.A.F.E. Project was for the young people of Arbroath.

STREET GAMES FOR ALL

National Tournament:

Street Games For all held a national tournament on Wednesday 11th July in which teams from around the country were invited to attend. On the day 16 teams competed with the overall winners: Goldenballs (The Attic in Brechin). They have won the right to represent Scotland along with a team from the C.A.F.E. Project in an international tournament in Germany. On the day there were many different attractions including Fire Brigade Demonstrations, Police advice on drug and alcohol misuse, and inflatable. A special thanks to all the staff and volunteers that helped on the day which was a roaring success.

Visit to Parliament:

A group from Street Games For All visited the Scottish Parliament in Edinburgh. Young people from local schools attended to take part in a street games session.

Justice Minister Cathy Jamieson attended the session along with other MSP's. After the session Street Games Staff and Volunteers were invited by Andrew Welsh on a guided tour of the building. A special Thanks to Mr Welsh for all his help.

Big Lottery Fund:

Street Games for all were given a grant of in excess of £100,000 for the next two years running costs

Regeneration Fund:

Street Games For All were given a grant of £20,000.

This money will fund a new mini-bus.

Football Match:

Staff and Volunteers competed against each other at Carnoustie Panmure's Astro-turf pitch. The game was a small reward for all the effort and hard work that our volunteers put in.
